This idyllic little cottage has been entirely renovated to a high standard over the past year and is now available for holiday lets.

It nestles between the cliffs and the shore at Kilcheran, with beautiful views over the Lynn of Lorn to the Creag Islands, Benderloch, Ben Cruachan and Oban Bay.

This part of Lismore has beautiful wild scenery and is ideal for walking or cycling.

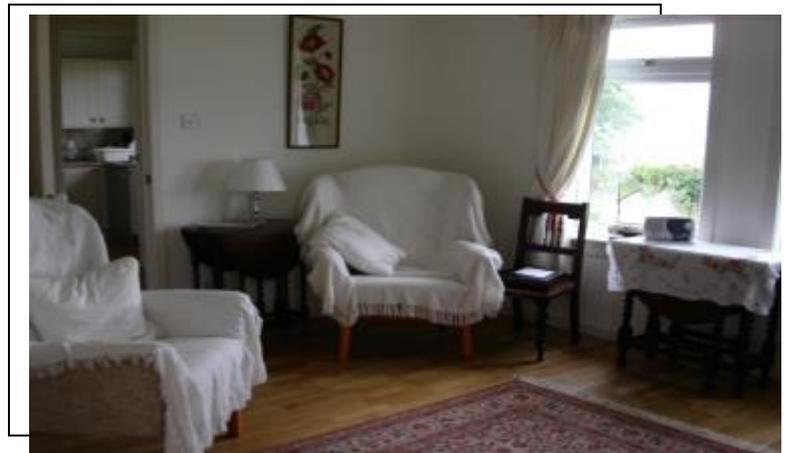

The cottage, sleeps two to four persons and is a quiet, peaceful retreat – ideal for de-stressing in beautiful surroundings whatever the weather.

Conservatory

Added to the house as part of the renovations, this attractive seating area provides lovely sea views whatever the weather ,with blinds to protect from the sun or give added privacy. Steps from here provide access to the back garden.

Sitting Room

The bright comfortable sitting room has Freeview TV, radio and a wood-burning stove for chillier weather. Heating otherwise is provided by electric radiators. The room is traditionally furnished with many antiques collected by the owner.

Bedrooms

The house has two bedrooms – one with double bed and the smaller room which has twin beds. Electric convector heaters are provided in both rooms.
